Meeting Objectives:

- Evaluate the relationship between developing trusting relationships and leadership
- Reflect upon personal communication strategies that promote the development of trusted relationships
- Implement strategies designed to promote networking

Sunday, March 8th:

Arrival and Check In
5:00pm: Welcome Reception - Terrace, 2nd Floor

Monday, March 9th:

7:30—8:30am: Breakfast Buffet - Decker
8:30—9:00am: Introductions and Welcome - Grand Salon
9:00—10:30am: Better Conversations Every Day™, Facilitated by Center for Creative Leadership Faculty Member Lynn Fick-Cooper
10:30—10:45am: Break - Foyer
10:45—12:00pm: Better Conversations Every Day (continued)
12:00—12:15pm: What’s The Magic!, led by Suzanne Boyle
12:15—1:30pm: Lunch - Decker
1:30—4:00pm: Better Conversations Every Day (continued - includes afternoon break)
4:30-5:30pm: Focus Group with Mentees and NurseTRUST - Grand Salon

Free Time/Dinner on Own
Tuesday, March 10th:

8:00-9:00am: Breakfast Buffet - Grand Studio Foyer

9:00—9:15am: Introduction to the Day’s Events - Decker

9:20—10:50am: Concurrent Sessions: Using Better Conversations to Strengthen Leadership and Careers

Facilitators: Deb Washington, RWJF ENF 2007 Cohort, Fran Roberts, RWJF ENF 2000 Cohort

This session is a series of conversations between diverse leaders. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss leadership strategies from diverse perspectives and explore strategies that were successful, strategies that failed, and new strategies for effective leadership.

Session B: Retirement or Preferment? - Bonaventure
Facilitators: Suzanne Boyle, RWJF ENF 2004 Cohort, Joyce Batcheller, RWJF ENF 2005 Cohort, June Chan, RWJF ENF 2004 Cohort

This session will explore the decision to make the major life decision to move into another phase of your career. When is it right to change work for a salary into the work we choose for love? Executives who have retired will discuss the motivation for their decision and how they are navigating this uncharted territory.

Session C: To Stay or Go? - Colonial
Facilitators: Susan Apold, RWJF ENF 2013 Cohort, Warren Hebert, RWJF ENF 2006 Cohort

This session will provide participants with the opportunity to discuss moral dilemmas in the workplace and determine the best course of action. Should leaders stay and navigate the serious issues and workplace challenges they are faced with? Should they leave the environment? How does a leader balance the need to make a workplace better with the need to find joy in their work?

Session D: Developing Your Brand: Me, Inc. - Decker
Facilitator: Melinda Earle, RWJF ENF 2013 Cohort

This session introduces you to the concept of a personal brand. We have a choice, we can choose a personal brand or we will be assigned a personal brand by other’s impressions of us. Personal brand is not about selling ourselves. It’s about sharing who we are and helping others like the way they feel when they work, live or play with us.

10:50—11:10am: Break

11:15—12:30pm: NurseTRUST Business Meeting (NurseTRUST Members Only) - Decker

12:30—2:00pm: Lunch and Networking - Terrace
2:00—3:30pm: Concurrent Sessions: Using Better Conversations to Strengthen Leadership and Careers

Facilitators: Deb Washington, RWJF ENF 2007 Cohort, Fran Roberts, RWJF ENF 2000 Cohort

This session is a series of conversations between diverse leaders. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss leadership strategies from diverse perspectives and explore strategies that were successful, strategies that failed, and new strategies for effective leadership.

Session B: Retirement or Preferment? - Bonaventure
Facilitators: Suzanne Boyle, RWJF ENF 2004 Cohort, Joyce Batcheller, RWJF ENF 2005 Cohort, June Chan, RWJF ENF 2004 Cohort

This session will explore the decision to make the major life decision to move into another phase of your career. When is it right to change work for a salary into the work we choose for love? Executives who have retired will discuss the motivation for their decision and how they are navigating this uncharted territory.

Session C: To Stay or Go? - Colonial
Facilitators: Susan Apold, RWJF ENF 2013 Cohort, Warren Hebert, RWJF ENF 2006 Cohort

This session will provide participants with the opportunity to discuss moral dilemmas in the workplace and determine the best course of action. Should leaders stay and navigate the serious issues and workplace challenges they are faced with? Should they leave the environment? How does a leader balance the need to make a workplace better with the need to find joy in their work?

Session D: Developing Your Brand: Me, Inc. - Decker
Facilitator: Melinda Earle, RWJF ENF 2013 Cohort

This session introduces you to the concept of a personal brand. We have a choice, we can choose a personal brand or we will be assigned a personal brand by other’s impressions of us. Personal brand is not about selling ourselves. It’s about sharing who we are and helping others like the way they feel when they work, live or play with us.

3:40—4:30pm: Closing Session, led by Warren Hebert - Decker

Free Time/Dinner on Own